

Theo Veteran's Day

Veteran's Day is a holiday celebrated in the United States to honor people that served in the military. It's important to honor people who served in the military because they risk their life for our countries.

The history of Veteran's Day is important because everyone should know about it. At 11am on November 11th, 1918 a peace treaty was signed to end World War 1. In 1938 Veterans Day became a national holiday to celebrate world peace. In 1954 it was changed to Veterans Day to honor our veterans: it changed a little bit throughout the history of the holiday.

People may wonder how Veteran's Day is celebrated. Schools in many states and towns are closed. Many people give speeches to honor veterans. Towns have parades. These entire thing honors the people.

What is the difference between Veteran's Day and Memorial Day? Veteran's Day honors everyone who served in the military. Memorial Day honors the people that died in the war. Veteran's Day is on November 11. Memorial Day is about people that died and veteran is when people that served in the military.

Veteran's Day is people that served in the war and we should honor them. That's what Veteran's Day is about and what people do at Veteran's Day so if Veterans Day comes up you should do that stuff.
