

Business/Non-Instructional Operations

Monies in School Buildings

Monies collected by school district employees and by student organizations shall be carefully safeguarded to protect the interests of the employees, students and Board of Education.

All monies collected shall be accounted for according to the regulations developed by the Superintendent.

In no case shall monies be left overnight in schools except in safes.