Summer Reading

This summer, please read! Find a cozy spot in your house or under a favorite tree, grab a snack, and sink into a book. There is a sheet attached for you to record any book you read this summer, but please read at least one Realistic Fiction (RF) book. Realistic Fiction means that the events in the story, while made up, could happen in real life to real people in modern times..

Then, using this form, keep track of some key information about the book and bring it to school on the first day. We'll be talking about our books on the week we come back in August!
