Statement of Ethics for Administrators

An educational administrator's professional behavior must conform to an ethical code of behavior, and the code must set high standards for all educational leaders. The educational leader provides professional leadership across the district and also across the community. This responsibility requires the leader to maintain standards of exemplary professional conduct while recognizing that his or her actions will be viewed and appraised by the community, professional associates and students.

The educational leader acknowledges that he or she serves the schools and community by providing equal educational opportunities to each and every child. The work of the leader must emphasize accountability and results, increased student achievement, and high expectations for each and every student.

To these ends, the educational leader subscribes to the following statements of standards.

The educational administrator:

1. Makes the education and well-being of students the fundamental value of all decision making.
2. Fulfills all professional duties with honesty and integrity and always acts in a trustworthy and responsible manner.
3. Supports the principle of due process and protects the civil and human rights of all individuals.
4. Implements local, state, and national laws.
5. Advises the Board of Education and implements the Board's policies and administrative rules and regulations.
6. Pursues appropriate measures to correct those laws, policies, and regulations that are not consistent with sound educational goals or that are not in the best interest of children.
7. Avoids using his/her position for personal gain through political, social, religious, economic, or other influences.
8. Maintains the standards and seeks to improve the effectiveness of the profession through research and continuing professional development.
9. Honors all contracts until fulfillment, release, or dissolution mutually agreed upon by all parties.
10. Accepts responsibility and accountability for one's own actions and behaviors.
11. Commits to serving the school, staff, students and community.

Statement of Standards for School Leaders

The Board of Education endorses the following “Standards for School Leaders” adopted by the Connecticut State Board of Education. These “Standards” represent the qualities desired of school administrators in this District.

I. The Educated Person

The school administrator is a school leader who promotes the success of all students by facilitating the development, articulation, implementation and stewardship of a vision of learning that is shared and supported by the school community.

II. The Learning Process

The school leader possesses a current, research and experience-based understanding of learning theory and human motivation, helps develop such understanding in teachers and parents, and uses that understanding to promote the continuous improvement of student learning. (i.e., Connecticut’s Common Core of Learning).

III. The Teaching Process

The school leader possesses a knowledge of teaching which is grounded in research and experience, and uses that knowledge to foster teachers’ reflection on the impact of their professional beliefs, values and practices on student learning. (i.e., Connecticut’s Common Core of Learning).

IV. Diverse Perspectives

The school leader understands the role of education in a pluralistic society, and works with staff, parents and community to develop programs and instructional strategies that incorporate diverse perspectives.

V. School Goals

The school leader actively engages members of the school community to establish goals that encompass the school’s vision of the educated person and in developing procedures to monitor the achievement of these goals.

VI. School Culture

The school leader utilizes multiple strategies to shape the school culture in a way that fosters collaboration among the staff and the involvement of parents, students and the community in efforts to improve student learning.
