

Namrah
Veterans Day Essay

Have you ever fought in the Coast Guard, The Army, The Marines, The Air force, or the Navy?

If you want to fight you have to be in the Coast Guard, The Army, The Marines, The Air Force, or in The Navy. Veterans Day is important because the people that were or are Veterans have fought and were very brave to do so.

- Why we celebrate Veterans Day

Veterans Day is a day when we celebrate the people that have fought. Veterans Day honors all of those who have served the country in war or peace. It used to be called Armistice Day which is the ending of World War 1. Veterans Day is important because they were really brave to fight and fighting can be scary. There are different branches like The Coast Guard, The Army, The Marines, The Air Force, and the Navy.

- Veterans Day History

Veterans Day originated as Armistice Day on November 11th the first anniversary of World War 1. November 11th became a national holiday beginning in 1938 for Veterans Day. Unlike Memorial Day, Veterans Day pays tribute to all the American Veterans, living or dead. Veterans Day gives thanks to the people living that served for their country during war or peacetime. Armistice Day was a day to honor the veterans of World War 1. Armistice Day started in 1938 in the United States to celebrate the Veterans who fought in World War 1.

- The different Branches

There are many different branches like the Marines, Air Force, The Army, The Coast Guard, and the Navy. These branches have very different jobs but if you do these jobs you are most likely to be a Veteran. All these branches are important for the jobs that you do if you have that job. All these have a different meaning and different things you do in each job. You can be a veteran if you have one of these jobs.

Veterans Day has many jobs like The Coast Guard, The Air Force, The Army the Marines, and The Navy. Those are called different branches and if you get a job in one of those branches you can be a Veteran. All the jobs have different things to do so if you come from one job doesn't expect the next job to be the same. Veterans are important because they have fought and fighting is not always easy for everyone. Veterans Day is really important to celebrate the people that have served the country in war or peace.